Arizona Department of Public Safety Officers Arrest an Armed Man on a Greyhound Bus who was causing a disturbance

On December 19th at about 3:30 p.m., Arizona Department of Public Safety Officers were called to a Greyhound Bus that had pulled over to the gore point in the Southbound Lanes of Anthem Way north of Phoenix.

As DPS Officers arrived on scene they found bus passengers had subdued Anthony Mireles, 42. According to witnesses Mireles was causing a disturbance on board the bus as it traveled from Flagstaff to Phoenix. At one point the suspect had displayed both a gun and a knife. The driver managed to stop the bus safely at Anthem, Arizona as passengers got control over Mireles, took him off the bus and put him on the ground.

Mireles was transported to the Maricopa County Jail and booked on One Count of Disorderly Conduct Involving Weapons.

*Sgt. Paul Forch will be available for media interviews on this arrest today at 1:00 p.m. in front of the DPS Statue at the DPS Headquarters Building at 2102 W. Encanto Blvd. Phoenix
